PRIGHTFUL RUNAWAY. Great Excitement on Cherry Street.

About half past 7 o'clock last night, a uple of horses attached to a buggy, became frightened at the popping of a lot of fire-crackers in front of Colonnade Boilding. Cherry street, and dashed off at full speed, rattling over the Nicholson pavement with the swiftness of the velocipede. A pegro boy named Jeff. Spence was in deavoring to check the horses, but without, success. As the team passed "our corner." the scene was frightful to behold, and the people upon the sidewalks were in a state young. Judge Jo. C. Guild and Gen. S. of terrible excitement, and in great sus- R, Anderson were not forgotten in the expense as to the fate of the unknown person citement of the occasion, for in loud tones, in the vehicle. When about half way be- the old man at the tree announced a stick tween Church and Broad on Cherry, the of candy for each of the gentlemen. About $700 Worth of Gouds Stole On Wednesday night last the store Gray & Noble on Cherry street, near the corner of Bank Alley was entered by burglers, and goods amounting in value to about $700 carried off. Amongst the article stolen were thirteen dozen shirts eight sets of fore, and a large lot of shirt studs and sleeve buttons.

The burglars entered the store by the front door, and this too, in one of the most public thorongfares in the city. A screw driver vesterday morning was found on the floor, the instrument probably used in forcing open the door. A card was also found in the store, on which was written in a large hand, the following: "Sacret to the memory of Rev. Ransom Harris Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." This card evidently was dropped by one of the thieves, and from the quantity of goods taken off, there must have been several engaged in the robbery. On this occasion, the Indications are strong that he was not following directly the scriptural injuction which was so prominent upon his person. Before his next nocturnal visit, we advise him to bear in mind the commandment "Thou shalt

A couple of pickpockets were granted short shrift on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, Monday night. They boarded the train somewhere east of Columbus, and by the time it reached Humboldt had relieved several passengers of wallets, watches and dollar he possessed. The affair created on-iderable excitement, which reached fever heat by the time the train arrived at Carroll Station, six miles beyond the Junetion. When the ears slopped at Carroll lepot, and it was suddenly resolved to orever rid the line of Railroad of there irds of prey. The fellows were taken out y residents and passengers; strong ropes were secured, and in a few moments their ifeless corpses dangled from the limbs of a tree. The lynching was conducted quietly. The proof was positive, the stolen property being found on their persons and destified. Their last earthly exploit was accomplished. Our informent, Mr. W. C. Jones, cur uctor on the Memphis and Louisville ne, says the Memphis Aralanche, did not are the names of these latest victims of Indge Lynch, but they were doubtless members of a gang recently arrested here or vagrancy and ordered to leave the city
